

Brave Saint Saturn, Titan

Behind what I know and see,
A darkness that will spy on me.
Eclipsed in this trajectory.
A cancer that is eating me

Chorus
Destroy, Divide,
the dark,
inside

In between the molecules is cold, no light for shaking fingers to ever have their hold,
And I'm afraid I'll never soo the light, the blind are following in sightless plight

Bridge
Titans looming over me, giants that are crushing me
