

Bread, Live In Your Love

Look At Me

Bread

(David Gates)

I'm driftin' down the street

Asking of all I meet

Don't you know me from somewhere

Hazel eyes and curly hair

Have you seen me anywhere

Look at me

I'm blending into the wall

And I wonder if I'm really here at all

Time goes by

So do I

But no one blinks an eye

Mirrors aren't reflecting me

Laws aren't protecting

And no one's expecting me

On the edge

I feel like I'm going to fall

And I wonder if I'll never land at well

Loneliness comes and stays

Torturing nights and days

People stare but cannot speak

Hearts are strong

But tongues are weak

Maybe all our minds are meek

Look at me

I'm fading into the floor

And wonder if I'm living anymore.