

Breaking Benjamin, Follow

I'm losing sight,
don't count on me.
I chase the sun,
it chases me.

You know my name,
You know my face,
You'd know my heart,
If you knew my place.
I'll walk straight down,
As far as I can go.

I'll follow you, you follow me
I don't know why, you lie so clean.
I'll break right through, the irony.

Enlighten me,
reveal my fate.
Just cut these strings that hold me safe.

You know my head,
You know my gaze,
You'd know my heart,
If you knew your place.
I'll walk straight down,
As far as I can go.

I'll follow you, you follow me
I don't know why, you lie so clean.
I'll break right through, the irony.

Cure.. this..
wait..
I..
I hate this wait
I hate this wait.

I'll follow you, you follow me
I don't know why, you lie so clean.
I'll break right through, the irony.
I don't know why, I don't know why.
I'll follow you, you follow me
I don't know why, you lie so clean.
I'll break right through, the irony.
