

Bree Sharp, Lazy Afternoon

Take a walk on Madison
The handbag hounds are out again
I can hear the "oohs" and "ahhs";
Rising from the sidewalk sale
From the girls in Vogue and the Hip-hop chil
It's OK to trap and kill
In the name of fashion...

It's a lazy afternoon
And the papers say the end is soon
And the kids are deep in a TV haze
And the Middle East is going crazy
But what can we do ? Lazy afternoon...

Take a walk on Sunset
It's a party you won't soon forget
I can smell new age coffee
Rising from the strip mail chain
Cause we need fast food at every turn
It's OK to slash and burn
In the name of hunger

It's a lazy afternoon
And the papers say the end is soon
And the corporations overgraze
So the Little Guy can't get a raise
Hey, but what can we do ? Lazy afternoon...

It's a big commercial grin
It wears me down till I have to give in
There's a barcode where my heart should be
Oh, TV, tell me what I need
I don't care how it get to the store
Just gimme more, more...

It's a lazy afternoon
And the papers say how to move out to the moon
Cause the Earth's going down in a toxic haze
And our Money goes but the Problem stays
Hey, so what can we do ? Lazy afternoon...
Hey, so what can we do ? What can we do ?
Lazy afternoon...
