Brenda Lee, I'm A Memory

(hum) I'm a game that you use to play I'm a plan that you didn't lay so well I'm a fire that burns in your mind Close your eyes, I'm a memory

I'm a love that you bought for a song I'm a voice on a green telephone I'm a day that lasted so long Close your eyes, I'm a memory

(hum) I'm a dream that comes with the night I'm a face that fades with the light I'm a tear that falls out of sight Close your eyes, I'm a memory (hum)

Close your eyes, I'm a memory
