

Brian Eno, Over

Into the road and ten women
They are the rose of, oh, living
They're over...
Paling over.

Say all the words that are memory
Enter the ways of all the pain
Send over...
All is over.

Hitherto rode and wherebefore
Given the rules we had to call
All over...
All and over.

(Inaudible chorus)

Into the ways of forgiving
Into the silver source renew
Over
Big over.

Into the world he was approved
Came to the world a year too soon
Over
And over.
