Brian Eno, Over

Into the road and ten women They are the rose of, oh, living They're over... Paling over.

Say all the words that are memory Enter the ways of all the pain Send over... All is over.

Hitherto rode and wherebefore Given the rules we had to call All over... All and over.

(Inaudible chorus)

Into the ways of forgiving Into the silver source renew Over Big over.

Into the world he was approved Came to the world a year too soon Over And over.
