

Brian Jonestown Massacre, My Man Syd

Oh

You're gonna play at my house

You're going to share

'Cause it's getting very cold out

Although you don't care about you

I know it's unfair to doubt you

Liar

In the wicked game that you play

The rules are unfair

It's not the thing that you say

You're friends all swear they doubt you

They don't really care about you
