Brian Kennedy, A Better Man

Open your eyes Say what you say and I'll listen For a while Where is you smile? The one that reminds me to whisper Like a child How can we stay strong? Now hope is gone Give me a reason I can believe in Help me to be the best I can Give me a feeling The love that I'm needing to make me A better man Will it be there The taste that reminds me I missed you All this time? You know I still care I'm walking around in a circle Like I'm blind Oh it's been so long But I'm holding on Give me a reason I can believe in Help me to be the best I can Give me a feeling The love that I'm needing to make me A better man, oh yeah Give me a feeling The love that I'm needing to make me A better man Give me a reason I can believe in Help me to be the best I can Give me a feeling The love that I'm needing to make me A better man
