

Brian May, Let Me Out

(Brian May)

Yeah Nice and gentle
Ooh I been sleeping I been hiding
Beat my head against the wall
I been crying just from staring
At the shame of it all

Let me out
Let me outa here
We can fly away tonight no one will know
We can fly away tonight no one will know
No one will know - that's right

Really talking soon be laughing
It's a brand new world out there
If I'm dreaming it don't matter
I can feel that fresh air

Let me out - let me out
Let me outa here
We can fly away tonight no one will know
We can fly away tonight no one will know
Nobody will know

All our souls on fire

Well I've been waking news is breaking
There's a world outside my door
We can take it we can make it
And I won't ask for more

Let me out - yeah
Let me outa here
We can fly away tonight no one will know
We can fly away tonight no one will know
Not till tomorrow anyway
Then we can be miles away
Let me out baby

Help me Edward

Don't be grieving don't be pouting
Give yourself a holiday
Say you're leaving Sunday driving
Pack your bags up and shout

Let me out - shout it out
Let me outa here
We can fly away tonight no one will know
We can fly away tonight no one will know

Let me out baby
