

Brian McKnight, Last Dance

Do we know more than
We knew then
Or do we know less
And we just pretend
Should I ignore my heart
And walk away
Your eyes tell me more
Than words will ever say

Should we take a chance
And dance the last dance
Should we spend the night
One more time
Caught-up in this romance
Or maybe wait and see
Let it be
The way that it will be
Should we take a chance
And dance the last dance

How can I be wrong
When I feel the way I feel
How can I deny
Emotion that's so real
In the middle of the night
I call out your name
Do I ever cross your mind
Do you feel the same

Like we should take a chance
And dance the last dance
We should spend the night
One more time
Caught up in this romance
Or maybe wait and see
Let it be
The way that it will be
Should we take a chance

Let me go
Come to me
Which way is the way
That it should be
This is so bitter sweet
There's no way
That we will ever know
For sure

Unless we take a chance
And dance the last dance
One more time
Let it be

Dance wit me come on dance wit me
