

Brian Rice, Can't Say I'm Sorry

Hey baby tell me how do you do
Its been a while since I saw you
Strange to be talking to you this way
After everything that weve been through
It makes me sad to make you see
That not a single tear could find me
Cause even when Im looking back into your eyes
I cant say Im sorry
When I think about the best days of my life
I cant say Im sorry
Cause I could never tell myself I didnt try
I cant say Im sorry now
Wont turn around
Cant say Im sorry
So I hear youre hanging with someone new
Never thought I would ask the question
No, never thought Id say this to you
But somehow it feels like a blessing
No more coulda,woulda,should
Now that feelings gone for good
Chorus
Youre still devine, so beautiful
It wont be hard just to slip and fall
And my mind could start to wander away
Cause what we had was magical
But I know Ive said goodbye
To whatever was left tonight
Chorus x 2
I cant say Im sorry now
I cant say Im sorry
