Brian Setzer, Every Tear That Falls

You act with your heart
I can see your stars
I can see riding through
Well I'm just like you
Every tear that falls I remember
You say what you mean
Even when it hurts
You should know one thing
The fire comes with the stake
Every tear that falls I remember

Every tear that falls I remember

You know your a fool
Thinking back you all
Never feel afraid
Well I'm just like you
Every tear that falls I remember
Every tear that falls I remember
Every tear that falls I remember
