Brian Wilson, Mexican Girl

Hey, Mexican girl A dahlia in your hair The soul of Los Feliz where laughter fills the air Won't you make me smile Light up my sundial Girl, you cast a net On the day we met Mexican, Mexican, Mexican girl Danced her way into my world

Hey, Mexican girl, with eyes of burning fire Heal me with your passion Inspire me to inspire

Loyal and strong, yet tender as a song Help me understand, make me a better man Mexican, Mexican, Mexican girl Danced her way into my world

Hey, bonita muchacha Don't you know that I want ya? Hey, bonita muchacha I need to know that I got ya

You have my sacred heart We'll finish at the start Can you picture me In your family tree?

Mexican, Mexican, Mexican girl
