

Brian Wilson, Midnight

Lost my way, the sun grew dear
Stepped over graves and stood in seers
Took the dive but couldn't swim
A flag without the wind

When there's no morning without you
There's only darkness the whole day through
Took the diamond from my soul
Turned it back into coal

All these voices
All these memories
Make me feel like stone
All these people
Make me feel so alone

Lost in the dark
No shades of grey
Until I found
Midnight's another day

Swept away "(swept away)"
In a braying storm "(in a braying storm)"
Chapters missing "(chapters missing)"
Pages torn "(pages torn)"
Waited too long for the warmth
I had to chase the sun

All these voices
All these memories
Make me feel like stone
All these people
Make me feel so alone

Lost in the dark "(lost in the dark)"
No shades of grey
Until I found "(until I found)"
Midnight's another day
