

Brightwood, Surefire

Looking back, no turning back.
Wouldn't take it back for a second.
So unsure yet unashamed love.
You turn my world upside down.
Open up your heart and let me in.
Open up your eyes. Don't you see?
When I'm with you I lose control.
When I'm with you I am irrational.
And when you're near I fall in love.
Gripping fears unknown.
It's getting harder to breathe.
The little things that guarantee.
And this slow surefire dance.
I need you to know that I want you this way.
I'll take everything you are.
I'll take the fall for you.
Show you I will...give everything I am
