

Brightwood, Wake

Sixteen years and you're still on my mind
I know you hear me
I fall awake, and you're so far away
I need you to be near me

Come back for you
Quiet I'll wait
Will you find me here,
Underneath the raging sea?
I won't breathe

I see you
I'm so afraid
But I reach out
You never changed

Pull me in
Don't let me drown
This will not be easy
You'll have to hold me down
Tie me up, don't let me run
Because another day without you is another lifeless one

Caught in the waves
In this endless ocean of people
I will wait for you underneath the lights alive
And I won't blink

I see you
I'm so afraid
But I reach out
You never changed

Pull me in
Don't let me drown
This will not be easy
You'll have to hold me down
Tie me up, don't let me run
Because another day without you is another lifeless one

I'm so cold
And I'm so afraid
But I reach out, oh I reach out
I reach out

Pull me in
Don't let me drown
This will not be easy
You'll have to hold me down
Tie me up, don't let me run
Because another day without you is another lifeless one
