

Broadways, Dropjaw

Seems like another wasted day.

Sometimes I think I think too much.

Or my heart just seems to run away

I thought of you, i thought of you

F**K THE WHOLE WORLD

I just want to sit and cry tonite in the arms that make me happy.

I never thought a smile could my life, what a pretty girl on such a cloudy day.

And i dont care about anything.

Every night I make a wish that i'll see you tomorrow.

Sugar.

Never tasted anything so sweet.

Never felt something so beautiful.

This ugly world needs more beauty like yours.

My star.

My love.
