

Broadways, What Happened?

i hardly recognize this place i used to call it my home now it's filled with so many strip malls and wendys and shitty mcdonalds and all the houses look the same all the people look the same what happened to my park it looks like a plastic prison how are the girls and boys ever gonna have fun? they said it was cheaper this way but what's more important than children? all the parks look the same all the children look the same can't you see what they've done to us? they've cloned and reproduced us made us into fked up machines stole our imagination. take off the blind fold i work from 9 to 5 from 6 to 10 i watch tv there's millions of others like me ask yourself how can i be a man?
just be yourself, please
