

Brodie, Something To Say

Someone don't care who it is
Tell me of your insignificance
I'm boxed up
Lost inside myself
Trapped in my own existence

Don't remember anything you said to me
Not that it would really change my mind
Never going to be who you want to be
Take you own advice this time

I've got something to say
Don't turn your head and walk away
This time you're going to stay
Don't turn your head and walk away

Somewhere don't care where it is
As long as it is far away from here
I'm changing and no matter what you say
You will never make me shed a tear

Don't remember anything you said to me
Not that it would really change my mind
Never going to be who you want to be
Take you own advice this time

I've got something to say
Don't turn your head and walk away
This time you're going to stay
Don't turn your head and walk away
