Brodie, Something To Say

Someone don't care who it is Tell me of your insignificance I'm boxed up Lost inside myself Trapped in my own existence

Don't remember anything you said to me Not that it would really change my mind Never going to be who you want to be Take you own advice this time

I've got something to say Don't turn your head and walk away This time you're going to stay Don't turn your head and walk away

Somewhere don't care where it is As long as it is far away from here I'm changing and no matter what you say You will never make me shed a tear

Don't remember anything you said to me Not that it would really change my mind Never going to be who you want to be Take you own advice this time

I've got something to say Don't turn your head and walk away This time you're going to stay Don't turn your head and walk away
