Brooks & Dunn, Blue Christmas

(Billy Hayes/Jay Johnson)

I'll have a blue Christmas without you I'll be so blue just thinking about you Decorations of red on a green Christmas tree Won't be the same dear, if you're not here with me

And when the blue snowflakes start falling That's when those blue memories start calling You'll be doing alright with your Christmas of white But I'll have a blue Christmas

You'll be doing alright with your Christmas of white But I'll have a blue, blue Christmas
