

Brother Beyond, He Ain't No Competition

He may have got you now

But he ain't won your heart completely

He tries to put me down

But that's just jealousy.
You may be in his arms

But I know it's me you're missing

So I'm gonna set every wheel
In motion to win your love for me.

'Cos he could never hold you like I wanna hold you
Or treat you better than me.
When it comes down to loving you he ain't no competition.

He says he's in control
but his love won't last forever

He says he loves you now
but that's not eternity.
I'm gonna make you mine and we'll share a life together

I'm gonna show you what you've been missing just you wait and see.

'Cos he could never need you like I really need you
Or love you better than me.
When it comes down to loving you he ain't no competition.
When it comes down to loving you he ain't no competition.

Sometimes when we're close I'm sure you'll hear how my heart's beating

So I'm gonna set every wheel in motion to win your love for me.

'Cos he could never hold you like I wanna hold you
Or treat you better than me.
When it comes down to loving you he ain't no competition. (4x)
