

Brother Cane, Hung On A Rope

Tongue tied, black eyed, left for dead
Obscene, vaccine, excites the head
Let it bite

I bit your hand and spit it all in pieces
You're a lie
And now the truth comes out

Had to leave you all alone
Now I leave you all alone (and you are)

Hung on a rope
Out of the way
Hung on a rope

Fenced in, split ends, can't get it right
I greased your machine will all my might
The thought of you is getting old
Agony I let it go
Let it go
Out of a hole I'm digging
You won't break me anymore
Now you can swing so proud

Hung on a rope
Out of the way
Hung on a rope

I bit your hand and spit it all in pieces
You're a lie
Now you can swing so proud

Hung on a rope
Out of the way
Hung on a rope

Hung on a rope
Hung on a rope
Out of the way
