

Brown, Still

You're breaking me
Inch by inch
But I still cannot
REsist You
My heart is torn
Into thousand pieces
And I still can't Say no to you
I'm empty inside
I'm lost by your side
My soul is fading away
Still keep coming back to you
My head is so tired of it all
I still keep coming back for more
Back to you
I'm empty inside
I need you by my side
I want to know myself again
I want to know myself again
I don't want to feel confine
I don't want to feel confine
I don't want to feel confine
I don't want to feel confine
