

Bruce Springsteen, Red Headed Woman

Well, brunnetes are fine man
And blondes are fun
But when it comes to getting a dirty job done
It takes a red headed woman
A red headed woman
To get a dirty job done
Well listen up stud
Your life's been wasted
Till you got down on your knees and tasted
A red headed woman
A red headed woman
It takes a red headed woman to get a dirty job done

Tight skirt, strawberry hair
Tell me what you got, baby, waiting under there
Big green eyes that look like, son,
They can see every cheap thing that you ever done

Well I don't know how many girls you've dated, man
But you ain't lived till you had your tires rotated
By a red headed woman
A red headed woman

It takes a red headed woman
To get a dirty job done

Alternate third verse, Solo Acoustic Tour:
Well, push comes to shove
Man, and shove comes to push
And I was Moses standing 'fore the burning bush
A red headed woman
A red headed woman
It takes a red headed woman to get that dirty job done
