Bruce Springsteen, Souls Of The Departed

On the road to Basra stood young Lieutenant Jimmy Bly Detailed to go through the clothes of the soldiers who died At night in dreams he sees their souls rise Like dark geese into the Oklahoma skies Well this is a prayer for the souls of the departed Those whove gone and left their babies brokenhearted This is a prayer for the souls of the departed

Now Raphael Rodriguez was just seven years old Shot down in a schoolyard by some East Compton Cholos His mama cried "My beautiful boy is dead" In the hills the self-made men just sighed and shook their heads

This is a prayer for the souls of the departed Those whove gone and left their babies brokenhearted Young lives over before they got started This is a prayer for the souls of the departed

Tonight as I tuck my own son in bed All I can think of is what if it wouldve been him instead I want to build me a wall so high nothing can burn it down Right here on my own piece of dirty ground

Now I ply my trade in the land of king dollar Where you get paid and your silence passes as honor And all the hatred and dirty little lies Been written off the books and into decent mens eyes
