

Bruce Springsteen, When You're Alone

Times were though love was not enough
So you said sorry Johnny Im gone gone gone
You said my act was funny
But we both knew what was missing honey
So you lit out on your own
Now that pretty form that youve got baby
Will make sure you get along
But youre gonna find out some day honey

When youre alone youre alone
When youre alone youre alone
When youre alone youre alone
When youre alone you aint nothing but alone

Now I was young and pretty on the mean streets of the city
And I fought to make em my home
With just the shirt on my back I left and swore Id never look back
And man I was gone gone gone
But theres things thatll knock you down you dont even see coming
And send you crawling like a baby back home
Youre gonna find out that day sugar

When youre alone youre alone
When youre alone youre alone
When youre alone youre alone
When youre alone you aint nothing but alone

I knew some day your runnin would be through
And youd think back on me and you
And your love would be strong
Youd forget all about the bad and think only of all the laughs that we had
And youd wanna come home
Now it aint hard feelings or nothin sugar
That aint whats got me singing this song
Its just nobody knows honey where love goes
But when it goes its gone gone

When youre alone youre alone
When youre alone youre alone
When youre alone youre alone
When youre alone you aint nothing but alone
