Bryan Ferry, Shameless

I can read your lips I can read your mind It's all I want to hear why am I so blind?

And the way we were Fatefully entwined In a shameless world Rock 'n' roll desire

All the things you are In a single word Famously inspired Privately absurd

And the way we were Fatefully entwined In a shameless world Rock 'n' roll desire

And the days go by Morning, noon and night Permanently wired To a simple life

And the way we were Fatefully entwined In a shameless world Rock 'n' roll desire
