Bryan White, Bad Day To Let You Go

I've got a hole in my shoe
And a bad case of the blues
On top of that it's rainin too
I picked a bad day to let you go
I've got nothin but time
Nothin but you here on my mind
I guess the stars got out of line
I picked a bad day to let you go

chorus:
Why did I walk away
I must have been crazy
If I could relive that day
I'd make it right, baby
It was just a wrong frame of mind
Wrong place, wrong time
But I know, I picked a bad day to let you go

I'm starin holes through these walls
Waitin on lady luck to call
But I know you wouldn't after all
I just picked a bad day to let you go

Why did I walk away
I must have been crazy
I'm payin for it everyday
But you're gone baby
It was just the wrong frame of mind
Wrong place, wrong time
But I know, I picked a bad day to let you go

Chorus
