

BT, Animals

My secret wish
In this sacred place
Is to relinquish needs
The great constant
Is perpetual change

So when we leave
As we know we will
Some of us remains
Consecrated and unchanged

Circles in stars
They bind us now
Were pretty animals
Colors around
Are bled of love
Were hopeful animals
Kiss me now
So we can feel alive
Were conscious animals
Circles in stars
They bind us now
Were sacred animals

From blood we came
To ash we return again
These carbon hearts
And terrestrial hopes
From our first goodbye
To the last hello
Pray we carve our paths
From Gods sacrosanct...yeah

Circles in stars
They bind us now
Were pretty animals
Colors around
Are bled of love
Were hopeful animals
Kiss me now
So we can feel alive
Were conscious animals
Circles in stars
They bind us now
Were sacred animals

The love we crave
That binds, bends
But can never change
Feeds the faith in faith
that I search for in everything

Circles in stars
They bind us now
Were pretty animals
Colors around
Are bled of love
Were hopeful animals
Kiss me now
So we can feel alive
Were conscious animals
Circles in stars
They bind us now
Were sacred animals

The love we crave
That binds, bends
But can never change
that I search for in everything

Stars they bind us now
Around are bled of love
Were conscious animals

Kiss me now
So we can feel alive
Were conscious animals
Circles in stars
They bind us now
Were sacred animals

Circles in stars
They bind us now
Were pretty animals
Colors around
Are bled of love
Were hopeful animals

Stars they bind us now
