

Buck-O-Nine, Awkward Girl

I met a girl with awkward moments of beauty
And all her moments in between were too
She's got a smile that takes me elsewhere

She tells me dumb ass jokes
And sings songs out of tune
She's got that so much life
Her spirit fills up a room
She's got a tattoo on the low end

You should see this girl
You should see this girl
She's my sunny eyed girl
You should see this girl
You gotta see her
You should see this girl
She's like diamonds and pearls
You should see this girl
You've gotta see her

I met a girl with awkward kinds of moods
And all her moods in between were cool
She says she likes to keep me on my toes
