

Buddy Holly, Last Night

Last night as I watched the stars from my window I pray Lord above to guide and protect you though I'm not wanted now - I still love you somehow that is my only prayer - for you

Last night as I gazed through the mist in my eyes I wanted you here to hold you so near but silence tells me - you didn't hear my plea

I miss you so much since you left me my heart ached apart since you left me

though I'm not wanted now - I still love you somehow
that is my only prayer - for you
