

Bugsy Malone, I'm Feeling Fine

I'm feeling fine
filled with emotions
stronger than wine
they give me the notion that this strange new feeling is something that your feeling too matter of fact im forced to admit it
caught in the act
and maybe we've hit it is this strange new feeling something that your feeling too

Chorus
if this is love its a rhapsody im gonna sing it like a song and if you're singing it back to me forget about sophistication keep it simple
thats my style

love at its best
a pleasure to make it
a chance that ive test
im willing to take it if this strange new feeling is something that you're feeling too

repeat chorus

repeat **
