

Buju Banton, Cry No More

Don't cry!
Don't cry!
oh no, oh no

Chorus:

I never wanna see you crying over me you know thats not the way that it's supposed to be oh no, no no no no
you gotta be strong

never wanna see you crying over me
you know thats not the way that it's supposed to be oh no, oh no no no no
you gotta be strong

Oh my love

verse1:

I know, I've hurt you more than once (once, twice, three times) treating your love like i don't response time in deed caught up on me trapped in your tears, please set me free I plea,
Maybe I took this life for granted making you feel like your not wanted Ego got the best of me Chasing every beautyfull woman I see In the end what's my reward?
I brought unhappyness in a mi yard Oh lord

Chorus:

I never wanna see you crying over me
you know thats not the way that it's supposed to be
oh no, no no no no
no no no...

never wanna see you crying over me
oh no, no no no no
dry your weaping eyes

verse2:

And this may sound just like a drama inside me there's a constant fire burning my soul, saying oh what a liar You've hurt her so much times, hurt her no longer but I'm a really true believer, in love trying my best to make it work show my a man who doesn't cheat nor flirt in this world boys will be attracted to girls

Chorus:

I never wanna see you crying over me

you know that's not the way that it's supposed to be
oh no, no no no no

I never wanna see you crying over me
you know that's not the way that it's supposed to be
oh no, no no no no
no no no...
