

Bullet For My Valentine, Letting You Go

I don't understand just why you wanna keep me guessing what I've done or what I've said to make make you feel this way I get the feeling this is never getting any better seems to me we need to draw a line for everybody's sake
before it washes us away first you wanna hate me

then you wanna love me
this is how I'm feeling I'm just letting you know don't wanna hear it
I ain't gonna fake it
now I'm letting you letting you go coldest heart I've ever know now I'm better off alone

then you wanna love me

so I know this hasn't gone the way that we expected you had to try and make a fool of me and leave a bitter taste I try to compromise with open eyes but we're disconnected
