Bullgooseloony, Radio Catastrophe

what if one day
the music just stopped
and you couldn't even
sing a song?
what if one day
all the radios turned off
and you couldn't even
sing along?

chorus:
looks like another
radio catastrophe
o yeah
another audio emergency thats affecting all of humanity
by driving us all to insanity drivin in your cars sittin in your rooms doin everything and thinkin nothing of the tunes well what if one day they all went away? what would you do?... thats right, you got nothing to say

chorus

so now, dont you see?
why the music's so important to me
it gives me a place where i belong, yea
a place where i'll always be
