

Bullshit Baby, Hey Man

Hey Man

Tell me why you cry

And what you think about the lie

Why you running out of spite

Through the main street on red light

Don't you understand

Cause your chance drove away

Long ago, you were deaf, you were blind

Leave it!

Now you know the taste of flow

Stink of regret and how it's to be low

Then you may tell her "I'm glad"

Don't you get it, it's simply her

Just tell me please

What's your name

Hey man, it's all right

Come inside

Hey man, it's all right

Take all of your thoughts and come inside
