

Burden Of A Day, Sly Foxes

We watch the waters rise,
and let the tides come up to our neck.
With pride taking on the ways
screaming over and over again,
"I never lie, I swear I can swim"
"I never lie" but there I go again.
What have we become?
I feel like we have just begun
Focus I want you at your,
focus I want you at your best
I swear I'll never let go
Focus I want you at your,
focus I want you at your best
Oh we are so smooth.
The way you speak...the way I move
So seek all you want, you'll never catch me.
Jesting the hare and consuming the feast.
I will shake the earth.
Oh we are sly sly foxes
but this love will find us where we hide
This love will find us where we hide.
This love will find us where we hide.
Focus I want you at your best.
What have we become?
I feel like we have just begun.
Focus I want you at your,
focus I want you at your best.
I swear I'll never let go.
Focus I want you at your,
focus I want you at your best.
Hold on, be strong
stay steadfast you are your fathers son.
Be still for the lion and lamb will lay as one.
We watch the waters rise,
and let the tides come up to our neck.
With pride taking on the ways
screaming over and over again
