

Bush, Body

Hush child- lay your sweet lips on me this greed- bigger than you and me will you come again
body tongue tied and a visceral third degree feel warm- center of gravity wash us all away bondy never lies
will we stay friends
oh you paralyze
there are times when i wish that i was y ou thick skinned- cities you drive me through better than me- you're a woman seven days and my system is free again we rise- lose it on oblivion falling away- sorry for the way your child is on fire lick these my ruby lips drop your protein pills better just to lose yourself we kiss we kiss we kiss pretty words could never say
