

Busted, Losing You

Yeahhhhh

Sitting here alone thinking it through trying to convince myself that i'm
Not losing you,
Or can't you just forget the things i said
I was angry at the time but now i cleared my head
It was so strong, where did it all go wrong

[Chorus:]

So tell me why, i'm swimming against the tide
And i'm praying for a lifeline, cos i'm Losing you
So tell me why, you don't care enough to try
Are you giving up this fight, i can't stand,
Wont stand, losing you

You don't have to say a word its in your eyes
What can i do to convince you we need more time
And i know i may have made a few mistakes
But losing you is just too much for me to take
It was so strong, where did it all go wrong

[Chorus]

So tell me what to say
Because i need, a chance to change
And i wont let you walk away

[Chorus x2]
