

By A Thread, Crushed Beneath

So far away,
I can still touch you,
So much to understand here,
But you take another step,
And I'll be there,
You might fall,
You might fall, turn a light,
You might fall,
You might fall, turn a light on...

In my eyes I know I can't see you,
But in my mind I know I can believe,
Too many times I feel past of the moment,
So under-rated,
Smiles on their faces,
Hard to surprise,
Many fears get in the way...

And I'll be there,
You might fall,
You might fall, turn a light,
You might fall,
You might fall, turn a light on...

In my eyes I know I can't see you,
But in my mind I know I can believe,
Believe I say,
Too many times,
Too many times...
I will long for the ride,
And I have to ask myself,
Why?
Too many times,
Oh I know,
I'll be there,
Well I have you,
On my mind,
And I'll hold you now, inside,
Inside,
Well I have you,
On my mind inside,
Well I hold you know, inside,
Inside me...
