

Cadaveres De Tortugas, It's Over Now (Calm Before Storm)

Me abrasa el fuego del destino
Pero el poder me conduce adelante
El poder, que sello mi vida
Mi vida, una revolución eterna
Contra mi destino, contra la gente
Contra el malvado, contra mi mismo

I am the mouth always hungry
I am the blind who sees clearly
I am who breaks your fragile empathy
The one you think is useless. That's me

Don't let you fool yourself it's just the calm before storm
There won't be always silence around
Storm hasn't given all out it just waits for a sign
Don't misunderstand the tears in my eyes

'cause now - I'm stepping out of the dark
Scarred by the thoughts inside of me
But I won't lie to myself again

No - I - won't lie to myself again

I am the heart of the senseless
I am the fist of the faceless
I am not as helpless as it seems
You better be ready to pay-off
