

Cadaverous Condition, The Once And Future King

it beckons to us all
sometimes we cannot hide it beckons us inside

open the door, a knock so pure in comes the seraphim teach me things, I already know filled with adrenalin cut him down, yet he grows back and makes my blood sing

the most unusual thing
the once and future king

wide open the door, a knock for sure?
leave me things I don't need like a life to begin cuts me down, cut, cut in comes the new king

the most familiar thing
the once and future king
