

Cadaverous Condition, You Remain

"das was wir lieben mssen wir lassen, nur das Leid ist lang"

you have my words, you know my thoughts you have it all, all for you blackness all around, your hand took mine you know it, too, the Flower, remember words are hard to find, to catch the spirit that charmed my soul, that crippled me that piece of life you held, you mesmerize it still it haunts me all the time, you are in my dreams you remain may it be again you remain eyes as the rain you remain time in pain you remain I wait in vain

I've cried for you, I cry for you why can't it be alright, why can't it be forever it is disillusioned, but still I don't know I can't see through, what do you do

- I am in your dreams the ones able to be recalled and those disremembered and the ones that don't come true you wish that those fragments may not dissolve for there are some there is one who can make this picture whole eyes and hearts and thoughts to see my life, a hand to hold, to be tears reign in heaven, rain for me oh lead me back to ecstasy tears fall on the Flower, fall on you tears fall on the angel, fall on you

I'd give it all up, now, for you (please) return the joy when I'm with you give me a souvenir that reminds me of you I'm standing here and I think of you some of us are precious, some of us feel pain in my mind, you remain I call your names, all the more I feel (the sorrow) I reach out for, may I not feel (the stranger and the fear)
