

Caedmon's Call, What You Want

You're softer than a cannon blast
But your effects much longer last
And I want you just like a hole in my head
But I need you like a meal and a bed

And you say, "Come on, I'm not what you're after."
But I know you're not just anyone, anyone

'Cause I'm not what you want
No, I'm not anyone
But if you needed me
Then I could be someone

And you're an army in a horse
And you have taken me by force
And all the freedom in this world could not resist
The sweet temptation of your sweet elusiveness

So I say "Come on!" as the gate swings open
'Cause I know you're not just anyone, anyone

But I'm not what you want
No, I'm not anyone
But if you needed me
Then I could be someone

And the lie's always cheaper than the truth
But the lie's all I've ever known of you
Maybe none of this is true

'Cause I'm not what you want
No, I'm not anyone
But if you needed me
Then I could be someone

'Cause I'm not what you want
No, I'm not anyone
But if you needed me
Then I could be someone

No, I'm not what you want
No, I'm not anyone
