

Caffeine, One Way

I wanna live my way,
dont say its the wrong way,
but its mine.
just to become something,
to become someone this time.

(chorus)
now theres one way to say we never wanted anything but now there's one way to say we never needed anything.

should we expect nine to five?
i dont want that life for me.
cause we deserve so much more than be your best for and me.

(chorus) x2

(whispered chorus)
