

Cagnet, How Life Can Be So Sweet

Sometimes we laugh it away
Sometimes we just can't hold it back
With you it's easy in my ride
I wish that this day could last forever
I've been waiting patiently
For you to come back to me
It's been a short eternity
Since you've left and gone away
When I'm without you
The waves crash upon the shore
Like time erasing
Everything we had before
*I don't want to lose this life (Like) watching the sun slip into the sea
When will you return with my heart
It's like all I have are memories Slowly this brings me the sweetest high like staring at the sunrise seeing you arrive at my door *
I've been waiting patiently
For you to come back to me
It's been a short eternity
I used to watch you sleep and I held you like a child
I remember you on the beach that seem so far out of reach ~ repeat
Do do do...
