

Caliban, Song About Killing

Im here to kill, Im here to die
I feel this pain, I have this hate,
You teach me to love
You teach me fear,
But now youre getting it all back (and my reasons are just trivial)
Try to run away, but believe me, to die this is your fate
This is a song about killing, a love letter just for you,
Lets make it right, lets make it clear, no one wants you here!
All I want is to kill, I want you dead, the price is too high
My lifes too short (Im sick of hunting you)
You are my shadow, you are my demon
You have to burn for my joy, Ill watch you burn
So you better run, before Ill watch you burn
Try to run away, but believe me, to die is your fate
This is a song about killing, a love letter just for you,
Lets make it right, lets make it clear, no one wants you here!
