

Call Me Karizma, 30,000

30,000 feet above the ground
I'm never coming down
I'll stay right here
Taking drugs, my doctor gave me 'em
I'd fill a stadium with all my tears

In middle school teachers taught me to quit
That told me to calm down and said I should sit
"Quiet now kid, we ain't learning you shit
Here's a word you might get - failure"
Fuck that, I don't follow rules
They said I'm intolerable
And it found that kinda cool
Wore it on my chest (like)

30,000 feet above the ground
I'm never coming down
I'll stay right here
Taking drugs, my doctor gave me 'em
I'd fill a stadium with all my tears
30,000 feet above the ground
I'm never coming down
I'll stay right here
Taking drugs, my doctor gave me 'em
I'd fill a stadium with all my tears

In senior high I was at the peak of my weirdness
Stayed in my room, always writing new lyrics
Showed off my songs to my friends in 5th period
They are like "Bro, what the fuck am I hearing?
It's garbage (garbage)
You ain't no artist
You ain't no Mac, man
You ain't no Marshall
You are just trash, man
Don't get me started"
Put a knife right through my heart (and)
Get in my car and drive to the park (and)
Write a new verse about all of my hardships
Everyone's fake and their words are so harsh
It's kinda getting hard to get up out of this slump (When I'm)

30,000 feet above the ground
I'm never coming down
I'll stay right here
Taking drugs, my doctor gave me 'em
I'd fill a stadium with all my tears
30,000 feet above the ground
I'm never coming down
I'll stay right here
Taking drugs, my doctor gave me 'em
I'd fill a stadium with all my tears

I'm flying
I'm soaring
I'm trying to make it work
I'm falling face forward
I'm dying to make it short
I'm flying
I'm soaring
I'm trying to make it work
I'm falling face forward
I'm dying to make it short

30,000 feet above the ground
I'm never coming down
I'll stay right here
Taking drugs, my doctor gave me 'em
I'd fill a stadium with all my tears
30,000 feet above the ground
I'm never coming down
I'll stay right here
Taking drugs, my doctor gave me 'em
I'd fill a stadium with all my tears
